

Jennifer:

I am submitting to run again for Co-Chair of Membership with Jhonette Perdue.

I'm interested in staying in the same position to help streamline it more and build membership further. It's great being a part of the organization!!

My company, JSeeley Consulting, specializes in online marketing and publicity for Filmmakers, Entertainers, Authors, and Business Owners. I help my clients market themselves and their products effectively online, through social media and in the media. I have 20+ years of broadcast/journalism/film experience and 15+ years of sales and marketing experience. I'm passionate about supporting the film industry and those working in the arts. I am also a fiction writer, audio book narrator, and people connector.

Jhonette:

My company, BiggerGuyProductions, works with the film, music and the entertainment industry. I have 10 years of music and film experience with 10 years of non-profit experience. I am active in the film industry and working in the arts.
